Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

Storms dominate today's readings, but as both the first reading and the Gospel point out, God dominates the storms. Job learns that God not only created the rain and the sea, but also set limits on them. The powerful waves are kept at bay. In the midst of a violent squall, the frightened disciples are awestruck that Jesus is able to make the strong winds and high waves obey. Let us hear how God can calm even the worst storms.

First Reading Jb 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said:
Who shut within doors the sea,
when it burst forth from the womb;
when I made the clouds its garment
and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
When I set limits for it
and fastened the bar of its door,
and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther,
and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Second Reading 2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:
The love of Christ impels us,
once we have come to the conviction that one died
for all;
therefore, all have died.
He indeed died for all,
so that those who live might no longer live for themselves
but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one
according to the flesh;
even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh,
yet now we know him so no longer.
So whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.

Gospel Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples:
"Let us cross to the other side."
Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.
And other boats were with him.

A violent squall came up and waves were breaking
over the boat, so that it was already filling up.
Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion.
They woke him and said to him,
"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?"
He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea,
"Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"
They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Music Ministry Invitation: Choir Member-at-Large

Nothing elevates our liturgical celebrations like the sound of voices lifted in song! Would you like to become more familiar with the hymns and prayers that we sing at Mass, but not necessarily join the choir? Do you like to sing, but prefer to sit with your family, or in your usually pew on the other side of the church?
Consider become in a Choir Member-at Large! You are invited to join Melanie and the choir as they learn and practice the music before Mass, without any obligation to sit with the choir during Mass. The choir rehearses in the hour before each Mass (Saturday at 4pm, Sunday at 8:45 am). Vocal perfection or choir experience is not required! More voices in various corners of the church encourages others to sing out. Let's raise a joyful noise! Questions, melanie@stmatthiasparish.org.

Dave's leadership since July 2019, led those assembled through a prayer of blessing for the quilt and wished him well in retirement.

Watch Party: The Chosen

Have you heard of The Chosen? This television show is intended to fill in potential "backstories" for the biblical characters, especially Jesus' disciples. Sabrina will lead a summer watch party using this show as a tool. During each session, we'll read brief scripture passages, then watch the episode that incorporates the scripture, then engage in a discussion. This six-week series will be held on Sundays from 11-12:15 pm on July 7, 14, 21, 28 and August 4 and 11. Attendance at all the sessions is not necessary. No prior experience with scripture study is required.

2024 Annual Appeal

Thank you to all those who have already made a contribution to our 2024 Annual Appeal! We are very close to our goal. If you haven't yet made a pledge, please submit your donation soon. We'd like to welcome our new pastor, Fr. Roy Remo, with the completed 2024 Appeal when he joins our parish July 1st. Donations can be made on our website, dropped in the collection baskets, or sent directly to the Archdiocese. 2024 AAA envelopes may be found on the table at the back of the church. Thank you very much for your support!

Catholic Volunteer Opportunities at Stanford Hospital

Would you be interested in visiting Catholic patients at Stanford Hospital and offering them Communion as a Eucharistic Minister? If you are a compassionate listener, empathic, well grounded in your faith and open to serving a couple of hours a week, then, becoming a Spiritual Care Service Volunteers at Stanford might be the right opportunity for you. We particularly welcome bilingual Spanish/English candidates for Eucharistic Ministers.

In addition, we offer Spiritual Care Volunteer positions as Clerks, if you would rather work in an office environment, have good organizational skills, and can serve 2-3 hours early in the morning one day per week to prepare the visitation lists for the Eucharistic Ministers.

Do not miss Stanford Health Care's next virtual orientation about serving as a Spiritual Care Volunteer on Thursday, July 11, 2024, 3pm to 4pm via Zoom! To learn more about this special ministry and sign up for the orientation session please contact Spiritual Care Service at spiritualcare@stanfordhealthcare.org by Friday, July 5, 2024.

Justice & Spirituality Interview

Recently, Deacon David and Sabrina were invited to interview Fr. Horan for the Oblate School of Theology's continuing education program. This Zoom offering is free and open to the public and will be on Tuesday, June 25th from 5:30-6:30 pm.

If you would like to attend, please click the link to signup -- <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/justice-and-spirituality-a-conversation-with-dan-horan-ofm-tickets-914654755997>

Sacramental Preparation for Children & Adults

If your child is currently in 1st grade, they may be eligible to begin preparing for the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist in the fall. If your child is currently in 8th grade, they may be eligible to begin preparing for Confirmation in the fall. And if your child has not yet been Baptized or are older than 4th grade and not yet received Reconciliation and Eucharist—we can help with that too!

If you would like to learn more about sacraments for yourself and are over 18 years old, contact Deacon Rich Foley. If you would like to learn more about sacraments for youth, contact Sabrina Harper. New groups will be forming in the Fall.
